2. Novel Approaches to Understanding, Preventing and Treating Lyme Disease and Tick-borne Coinfections

Relevant Projects: Lyme disease

Link: https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-16-243.html

FOA: PA-16-243

Purpose: The purpose of this Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is to support research that will contribute to the overall understanding of Lyme disease and co-infections transmitted by Ixodes ticks. This research opportunity encourages studies that address diverse scientific areas such as 1) pathogenesis, 2) host response, 3) disease transmission, 4) vector biology and natural history, 5) vaccines, 6) diagnostics, and 7) therapeutics.

Award Budget and Period: 500K

The maximum project period is 5 years.

Application Due Dates: June 5, Oct 5

3. NIH Exploratory/Developmental Research Grant Program (Parent R21)

Relevant Projects: parent R21

Link: https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-16-161.html

FOA: PA-16-161

Purpose: The NIH Exploratory/Developmental Grant supports exploratory and developmental research projects by providing support for the early and conceptual stages of these projects. These studies may involve considerable risk but may lead to a breakthrough in a particular area, or to the development of novel techniques, agents, methodologies, models, or applications that could have a major impact on a field of biomedical, behavioral, or clinical research.

Award Budget and Period: The combined budget for direct costs for the two-year project period may not exceed $275,000. No more than $200,000 may be requested in any single year.The total project period may not exceed 2 years.

ABSTRACT (30 lines max)

Please provide a succinct and accurate description of the proposed work. This section should be able to stand on its own (separate from the application). This section should be informative to other persons working in the same or related fields and understandable to a scientifically literate reader. Avoid both descriptions of past accomplishments and the use of the first person. Please be concise.
